

Mr. Bryan Rosenberg

President and CEO of Chicken of the Sea Frozen Foods

Bryan Rosenberg has been President and CEO of Chicken of the Sea Frozen Foods (COSFF) since he established the Company in 2006 in partnership with Thai Union. From its inception, the organization's focus has been to increase Thai Union's perishable products distribution in the US market and to leverage the iconic Chicken of the Sea brand and name recognition into the refrigerated and frozen seafood categories.

Under Bryan's leadership, the Company has become the #1 importer of shrimp, lobster, and crab meat in the US, selling into all channels of trade. Today, COSFF has over 120 employees and is approaching $1B in annual sales.

Bryan will continue to drive Chicken of the Sea Frozen Food's strategic initiatives to further diversify product categories, grow the business organically and through M&A activity, and develop the next generation of leadership within this high-growth subsidiary. Bryan also serves on TU's Global Leadership Team and works closely with Rittirong Boonmechote within the Global Shrimp Business Unit.
